

ARTIST: Christy Ringrose
TITLE: Somewhere in the Middle LYRICS

*Somewhere in the middle of nowhere
Somewhere in the middle of
Somewhere in the middle of nowhere
Somewhere*

We bike along on the way to a village fair
Somewhere in the middle of trees and find some kind of peace
Even though I don't know you I will share my soul with you
Even though I don't know you I will share my soul with you

*Somewhere in the middle of nowhere
Somewhere in the middle of
Somewhere in the middle of nowhere
Somewhere*

The suncream on my neck reminded you of a perfume your mother used to wear... do I remind you of her? Even though I don't know you

Easy to complain as the days go to waste
Talking to somebody's face
I don't agree with the things you're telling me
But we've got some kind of need, some kind of need to be together

(musical interlude)

*Somewhere in the middle of nowhere
Somewhere in the middle of
Somewhere in the middle of nowhere yeah*

You'll lose a bit of sleep
You'll lose a bit of quiet you'll gain a bit of it was worth it memories to keep

Her mother used to say give it all away when there's not much on the plate, so let's give it all away
Even though we don't know you we will share our soul with you Even though we don't know you I will share our soul with you, ooo, yeah

*Somewhere in the middle of nowhere
Somewhere in the middle of
Somewhere in the middle of nowhere yeah
Even though I don't know you I will share my soul with you with you
Even though I don't know you I will share my soul with you with
you
Somewhere in the middle of nowhere
Somewhere in the middle*